There are 35 different types of purses, bags, totes to make and I love all the recycled material which is something I also do! Lots of pictures so you know exactly how it is made with excellent directions. Great creativity. A suppliers list which is something I always look for.This will be my go to book for a long time!6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. Glad I bought this bookBy MarryI love the different ideas presented in this book and plan to make them all. I already make bags from recycled items and this book has some great ideas. Easy to read...easy to follow. A must have for anyone making bags.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. one, two, three...let's go!!By CustomerI love to make pocketbooks. This book has so many different bags to offer and stirs up your imagination to create and combine new ones...love it!!

Every bag is designed to make the most of the materials that are readily available and easily recyclable. Try turning a dish-towel into a smart shopper to carry all your groceries in, or use an old hessian sack to make a sassy bag to take to the gym. Reuse is at the heart of this book, as projects like the floral scrap tote bag and the patchwork weekend bag demonstrate, and you will soon be able to transform an old blanket or a few scraps of discarded clothing into a unique bag in no time at all. Each project comes complete with beautifully illustrated step-by-step instructions and there are designs suitable for all skill levels the packaging bag requires just a few simple stitches, while the design of the adorable owl pocket bag will appeal to more experienced crafters. You are certain to find the ideal bag for you or the perfect gift to give to friends and family.

About the Author Since childhood, Clare Youngs has loved making beautiful handcrafted objects. She studied graphic design and went on to work in packaging for a number of high-street stores, including Marks and Spencer and House of Fraser. Clare has since worked in illustration and book jacket design before deciding to turn her attentions to craft full-time, and is the author of Stylish Papercraft: 25 Contemporary Projects for Your Home (Hamlyn, ISBN 978-0-600618-53-9). The Perfect Handmade Bag is her second book.
