A touch of classBy Alice WakefieldThis heavyweight paper adds a touch of class to your gifts, and I like that it comes with gift cards in a matching glossy folder for safekeeping. Each sheet can wrap up to a 15" x 10" shirt box easily, but I like to wrap just the top as it leaves the recipient with a nice box as well as the contents. The thicker paper isn't as easy to work with, and at that size there will be a subtle crease, but it's easily covered by ribbon.I also have the Robert Morris collection, but the Tiffany is my favorite all-occasion gift wrap. It may be a bit pricey but I wouldn't hesitate to buy more patterns when available.0 of 0 people found the

This wrapping paper is beautiful and of excellent quality. This is the first time I have purchased wrapping paper where it is packaged in a folder rather than roll, but this way I do not have to hold one end down with my elbow to cut to size. I wish they had larger sizes and all of the pieces were of the same design.

These gorgeous papers would certainly make your gift stand out. I bought this book of papers to use in my art projects. I am doing mixed media right now, and this is a nice weight for cutting up and glueing with matte medium. The colors are really pretty, and nice reproductions of Tiffany designs.

Superb patterns from studios of great designer include "Wisteria," "Dragonfly," a seasonal motif of red poinsettias, and exotic birds against lush green foliage. These full-color 18" x 24" sheets feature 4 different designs and come with 4 matching gift cards. Shrink-wrapped in a sturdy 9" x 12" folder.
