This book makes you look at your recycle bin the same way you look at your bead stash. I was so inspired by the projects in this book. I have already made 2 projects. It truly is amazing how Linda has transformed trash into jewelry and accessories. A lot of the designs if you don't look carefully you would never guess they are made of soda can tabs, plastic bottles and bike tubes! The tutorials are well photographed and explained. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Fun projects, great step by step photos, great value! By J. Whiting A super creative book full of great upcycled projects of all kinds! The pictures are outstanding and the step by step photos are perfect for being able to recreate the different pieces. I love Linda's eye for making fun, beautiful and creative pieces using normal household items you find simply lying around the house or garage! This is a book well worth the price for crafters of all skill levels!

Discover how to take something that was destined for the trash can and give it a new purpose, transforming it into something beautiful. Expert crafter Linda Peterson shows you 35 creative ways to upcycle soda can tabs, zippers, plastic, bike chains, inner tubes, and more. From a stylish soda can tab belt to a pretty gold zipper bracelet, and from stamped plastic earrings to a chunky bike chain bangle, there's plenty here to inspire you to get crafting. Every project has clear step-by-step photographs to guide you, and a basic techniques section covers all you'll need to know.
