Gautama V. Vajracharya : Watson Collection of Indian Miniatures at the Elvehjem Museum of Art (Elvehjem Museum of Art Catalogs) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Watson Collection of Indian Miniatures at the Elvehjem Museum of Art (Elvehjem Museum of Art Catalogs):

Introducing a rich historical and religious context, Gautama V. Vajracharya offers an original, nuanced study of the iconography of Indian miniature paintings. Providing an extended analysis of 129 art works catalogued in this book, he explicates the gradual development and interrelationship of two styles of Indic miniature painting from the sixteenth to eighteenth centuries: one commissioned by the Muslim Mughal rulers and the other by Hindu Rajput princes. He shows that belief systems reflected in ancient Indian art continued to be expressed, whether consciously or not, in later Indian miniature paintings and in other artistic forms well into the nineteenth century.
