Jessica Kruse : Welcome book: Making East Flatbush your home before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Welcome book: Making East Flatbush your home:

English Language Learners from Kurt Hahn High School in Brooklyn, NY, who have immigrated to New York from all around the world, wrote this book. It is a Welcome book to be distributed to adolescents who have recently immigrated to America. Topics in the book include: employment, health, youth culture, post-high school, and the American government system. This book is intended to assist immigrants with stories, resources, and facts to help them become more comfortable in their new country.
