Lori Markovic : Words to Stitch By (Leisure Arts #5356) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Words to Stitch By (Leisure Arts #5356):

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great instructions but simple to boot. By Indiamike I saw Lori's creations and have to simply say it's a matter of taste. I love her work and find directions clear and concise. That said, if you take it one step further you can make much your own. Insight and Art. How does it yet better?

About the Author In each of her La-D-Da cross stitch pieces, Lori Markovic combines the homey appeal of primitive samplers with a touch of modern flair. She began cross stitching when her children were little and became inspired by vintage samplers. "I wanted to try designing a sampler, because I was thinking a lot about the girls who stitched those Early American pieces. Their lives were all about family, home, and faith--ideals that run through all generations. And that's how I started La-D-Da Designs." Lori and husband Bob live in Wisconsin, where they are happily surrounded by family. Lori likes to garden and bird watch, which no doubt inspires many of the natural elements in her designs. Another inspiration is the strong sense of community she enjoys with fellow cross-stitchers.
