Dolores Storm : Work Play, Redwork Through the Day (Leisure Arts #5274) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Work Play, Redwork Through the Day (Leisure Arts #5274):

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. These are NOT iron-on patterns
By Pat Lentz If you are looking for patterns that are iron-on -- this is not the book! I did not realize that until the book arrived. I love the patterns, but having to trace them onto cloth and then embroider would be time-consuming and difficult do the the detail in the images. I'm sorry I had to return this item because I really did like the patterns and would love to embroider them. Maybe the author will put together some iron-on copies for these items.

Work Play--Redwork Through the Day (Leisure Arts #5274) presents 10 whimsical embroidery designs of youngsters romping, playing games, and doing chores. These irresistibly playful designs are from Dolores Storm of Lakadaisies.com, who has been winning the hearts of stitchers everywhere with her folk-art portrayals of childhood. Each fun design uses only one or two easy embroidery stitches. And did you know? Redwork doesn't have to be red! Use your favorite floss color, and if you want, follow our instructions to use tea or coffee to dye your fabric for an antique folk-art look. 10 designs: Jumping Rope, Driving, Gardening, Ironing, Sewing, Wash A Dish, Along Came a Spider, Fishing, Rocking Baby, and Skating.
